Dear Homeowner,

Let us carry out a FREE market appraisal of your home. We will give you a current market value, along with valuable advice of how to present and bring to the attention of potential buyers the assets of your present home. I believe that a good estate agent should know their local community inside and out. That means, not only presenting the best assets of your home, but also the benefits and advantages of choosing to live in the neighbourhood.

Schools, churches, health clubs, libraries, parks, are all important elements in providing a beneficial overall picture to potential buyers. Our team of experienced advisors have a wealth of ideas, tips, and local knowledge which is at your disposal to ensure your most valuable asset is not sold short. Contact us through any of the channels listed below, and request your FREE appraisal. Alternatively, fill in your details and drop the card in at our local branch. You can then plan your next move with confidence. Wouldn't you like to know what your home is worth?
